VALUE-ENGINEERED LIFE SAFETY PRODUCTS

LIFE SAFETY PRODUCTS

Emergency Lighting Units, LED Exit Signs and Remote Lighting Heads
Value Engineered for Reduced Cost Without Sacrificing Quality

How do you define value? For many, it equates to cost-effective, quality products that perform reliably. For others, value means conserving capital, lowering transaction costs and minimizing returns. For everyone, quality is synonymous with having their expectations fully met or exceeded. Compass Products by Hubbell Lighting, Inc. satisfies all these criteria with a value-driven, contractor-friendly family of life safety products that can be purchased and installed without compromise. Compass life safety products are backed by the sales and service excellence that has made Hubbell Lighting, Inc. a leading manufacturer and supplier of task and convenience lighting products.
